

PILLAR

Creating an Economically Prosperous Region

Agriculture and Agro-Industry

Enabling the Private Sector for Growth

Environmental Protection

Agriculture and Agro-Industry

Food security for the people of the Kurdistan Region—Iraq, economic prosperity for farmers, and prosperity through the export of our agricultural and food products.

- Improve the skills of farmers

- Improve the investment environment for agriculture

- Improve irrigation to enable agricultural production

- Rehabilitate and manage the land

- Develop infrastructure for the agriculture industry

- Improve the availability of agriculture data and information

- Implement legal reforms for the agricultural sector

- Minimize price distortions for agricultural products

- Develop our export potential

Enabling the Private Sector for Growth

A diversified and entrepreneurial private sector that is open to the world.

Improve the legal and regulatory environment for the private sector

Advance greater openness to the international economy

Improve the banking and financial system

Improve land registration and land use

Create special economic development zones

Open opportunities for small and medium-sized enterprises

Expand business opportunities for women

Complete privatization and enhance private participation in the economy

Promote Regional tourism

Increase the availability of data and information

Environmental Protection

A healthy and safe environment, with clean water, land, and air, for posterity and that enables the economy to grow.

Increase environmental awareness

Develop energy efficient buildings

Strengthen our laws, regulations, and enforcement

Start to conduct environmental impact assessments

Develop a strategy to adapt to climate change

Support environmental protection groups

Improve the urban environment